

O GLORIOSA VIRGINUM

Paroles : Saint Venance Fortunat (~530-609)

Anonyme

Andantino

1. O Glori - ó - sa Vir - ginum, su - blímis in - ter sí - de -
2. Jé - su tí - bi sit gló - ri - a, qui ná - tus est de Vir - gi -

The first system of the musical score is written for two staves, treble and bass, in a 2/4 time signature. The melody is in the treble staff, and the accompaniment is in the bass staff. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The tempo is marked 'Andantino'. The lyrics are in French and Latin, with two versions provided: a traditional version (1) and a more modern version (2).

8
ra : qui te cre - á - vit pár - vu - lum lac - té - n - te nú - tris ú - be - ra. Amen.
ne, cum Pátr(e) et ál - mo Spí - ri - tu, in sem - pi - tér - na sá - cu - la.

The second system of the musical score continues the melody and accompaniment from the first system. It begins with a measure rest in the treble staff, indicated by the number '8'. The lyrics continue with the same two versions. The score ends with a double bar line and repeat dots.